Acceptable Use Policy
Student Web-Publishing Privileges

By signing below, I indicate that I understand and agree to the following rules regarding publishing information on my school's web site. I understand this is a special privilege I am being given as a leader and role model in my school.

- I will only publish information approved by my teacher.
I will only publish images approved by my teacher.
I will only link to other web sites approved by my teacher.
I will model professionalism by using correct language, grammar, spelling, and punctuation unless otherwise approved by my teacher.
I will avoid plagiarism and follow copyright laws (cite sources, only use copyright-free pictures, music, etc.)
I will not provide a point of peer-to-peer file sharing where that sharing is in violation of copyright laws.
I will always inform my teacher when I have published new content on the web site.
I will report any information or links I discover on the school web site that I think may be inappropriate, inaccurate, or in violation of the rules on this agreement.
I will use the school web site to encourage a positive attitude toward my school, including teachers, administrators, staff, and other students.
I will NOT publish pictures of students unless approved by my teacher.
I will NOT post the full name of any student. I will post first names only if approved by my teacher.
I will NOT post any content that provides personal information about any person at my school.

I understand and agree to the rules above. I will seek advice from my parent/guardian and teacher when unsure of how these rules apply to a new situation.
